2. planned topic of the dissertation (working title):

Start of the doctoral project (month/year): _____

Planned end of the doctoral project (month/year): _____

3. the supervisors give a binding assurance that they will supervise the doctoral candidate. (This does not affect promotion regulations, according to which the supervisory relationship can be cancelled under certain circumstances).

4. the doctoral candidate discusses the development and implementation of the research project with the supervisory committee on a regular basis, but at least once a year.

The basis for the meeting is the work plan of the synopsis. This must be documented in text form.

5. the supervisory committee undertakes to regularly monitor the (scheduled) progress of the work and to comment on the contributions delivered at the agreed meeting dates to the extent necessary - in oral and/or written form.

6 The obligations of the doctoral candidate include, in particular, informing the Faculty of Social Sciences (Dean's Office) of any changes to the topic of the dissertation, the status at the University of Göttingen or the address.

7 Every scientific activity is based on the principles of good scientific practice. practice, as formulated in the guidelines of the University of Göttingen, among others (<https://www.uni-goettingen.de/de/ombudsstelle+f%C3%BCr+good+scientific+practice/223832.html>).

8. in the event of conflicts between a supervisor and the doctoral candidate, the other members of the supervisory committee and the responsible committees and officials of the faculty shall mediate first. The Executive Board of the Graduate School can then be called upon; the responsibility of other committees, in particular the ombudsman committees of the University of Göttingen, remains unaffected.

9. If applicable, supplementary agreements on resources available to the doctoral candidate. be provided:
